

Sample Prompts for Meeting the Essential Skill of Writing

Expository Prompt

Some people think, “There is no place like home,” while others are more interested in moving to a new and different environment.

Explain what features are most important to you in a community where you would like to live, whether it is your current hometown or some other place.”